

400 Years

Truth & Healing for the Next Seven Generations

The anniversary of the 1620 landing of colonists on Native homelands in the Northeast is a time to learn, reflect & act!

Sunday, October 18, 2:00 pm online gathering

Broadcast on YouTube and Facebook. Links will be posted widely.

Listen to Indigenous voices

- ❖ Rhonda Anderson - Iñupiaq-Athabascan Commissioner of Indian Affairs, W. Mass
- ❖ Larry Spotted Crow Mann - Nipmuc author, educator & singer
- ❖ John Peters - Mashpee Wampanoag Exec. Dir., MA Commission of Indian Affairs
- ❖ Bryan Blanchette - Nulhegan Abenaki singer & musician

Stand with Native efforts for rights, respect & land

Contribute to Indigenous projects

— ceremony, prayers, music & acts of solidarity —

Partners include:

Interfaith Council of Franklin County • Interfaith Opportunities Network
Nolumbeka Project • RiverCulture • Traprock Center for Peace & Justice (& many others)

For more information, visit interfaithamherst.org.