

The Worst You've Ever Done

Inspired by the words of Sr. Helen Prejean

Charlie King

Guitar

Ev-er say a stupid thing, wrong place, wrong crowd, wrong day?

Ever long to take it back, make it go a way? Now

dig a little deeper beneath the scab of shame,

Some-thing you pray you'd nev - er done, Some - thing you dare not name.

CHORUS 1

Im-ag - ine be-ing stuck right there, for all of time and tide,

And all the good you did or could, for - got - ten and de - nied by some strand you can't un - tan - gle from the wind - ing web you've spun To on-ly be re - mem-bered for the worst you've ev - er done.

The Worst You've Ever Done

32 A A D 2. D CHORUS 2 A

36 D E A C#7 F#m

May-be you be - Im-a - gine be-ing stuck right there for all of time to come, To on-ly be re - mem - bered for the

40 D E A A D

43 3. Bridge E D E A worst you've ev - er done. Well, you out - lived the

47 B7 B7 E E7

Out of his mouth a red, red rose, out of his heart a white, For the

51 D CHORUS 3 A D E A life he can nev - er live ov - er for the good he did, or might,

55 C#7 F#m E D E A

Im - a - gine be - ing stuck right there for all of time to come, A

59 C#7 F#m E D E A

smol - der - ing em - ber, on - ly re - mem - bered for the worst you've ev - er done, A smold - er - ing em - ber, on - ly re - mem - bered for the worst you've ev - er done.